Title: Opt for social-emotional learning programs
Description: In the busy world of today we often struggle to find time for ourselves which can impact our overall wellbeing. As educators and teachers it's essential we provide social and emotional development programs that promote resilience and wellbeing skills alongside academic skills. Research shows a healthy brain needs a balance of both SEL and academic skills to survive in today's busy world. Contact Pathways to Resilience and explore their social-emotional learning programs that will assist both you and your students to become more resilient.
